

INTERNATIONAL TRANSPORT

To master the techniques inherent in each type of transport and to be in measure to negotiate on an equal footing with the operators of transport

PUBLIC

Logistics managers, executives and import/export collaborators brought to manage the logistic aspects of international operations

OBJECTIVES

To know the techniques used in each type of transport

To know to calculate a logistic cost

To know to manage an insurance transport

To control the main documents used in international transports

PRE-REQUISITE: none

TEACHING METHOD

Alternation of talks/discussions and practical cases

DURATION: 1 day

PROGRAM

I Incoterms

Origin and objectives

The 4 families of Incoterms

The distribution of risks and expenses (critical point)

II Analysis of the different means of transport (maritime, air, road, railway)

The legislation in force

The contract of carriage

Obligations of the different parties

The carrier's responsibility

Rules of tariffing

Documents of transport (B/L, AWB, SWB...)
The choice of the logistic providers

III The transport insurance

Principles of the insurance

Different types of guarantees (French guarantees, institute cargo clauses A, B, C)

Which value to insure? Who is going to insure the goods? Which journey to ensure?

The settlement of the claims

SPEAKER: Ange Cubeddu - Consultant

Contact: ange.cubeddu@adelformation.com